GLASSHOUSE PORT MACQUARIE

GLASSHOUSE PORT MACQUARIE PRESENTS A SHOCK THERAPY ARTS PRODUCTION

CROSSING THE DIVIDE

Saturday 12 June, 7.30pm

Great theatre doesn't always give us the answers. Sometimes, it simply helps us see the questions differently.

What happens when two versions of history collide?

When a spirited debate between two school friends exposes vastly different perspectives on Australia's colonial history, the past and present collide in an unexpected encounter that challenges what we think we know.

Set in the Blue Mountains, Crossing The Divide blends compelling storytelling, live music, sharp humour and unforgettable characters in this thought-provoking theatrical adventure. Exploring the complexities of our shared history, this performance invites us to listen, question and discover what it might take to bridge the divide.

DURATION
60 minutes (no interval)

TICKETS*
Member: $49
Adult: $59
Concession: $54

WARNINGS
Low-level coarse language, use of racially prejudiced language, references to gun violence, use of replica firearms, haze effects.

WHY YOU'LL LOVE IT?

History with a theatrical twist: Two journeys through time collide in a clever, imaginative and thoroughly entertaining production.

Big ideas, told with humanity and humour: Compelling characters, live music and sharp wit bring Australia's complex history to life without the lecture.

Theatre that stays with you: Challenging perspectives, building empathy and opening up conversations that matter to us all.
