The Sounds of Simon & Garfunkel
Back By Popular Demand
Friday 27 June 2025, 7.30pm

ON SALE NOW

A capturing acoustic performance of the majestic hits of Simon & Garfunkel including Mrs Robinson, Homeward Bound, Sounds of Silence, Scarborough Fair, The Sound, Bridge Over Troubled Water, Feelin' Groovy, El Condor Pasa, I Am a Rock, Kathy's Song, Cecilia and many more.

Simon & Garfunkel reflected and defined the mood of the 60's with their close vocal harmonies and stirring songs penned by Paul Simon. Their songs, sound and message defined and reflected the mood and social moorings of the time. Their music remains timeless, etched in the memories of those they initially touched, and the generations since who have discovered their songs.

The Sounds of Simon & Garfunkel is performed by Shelley and O'Regan. Mark Shelley and Peter O'Regan have been touring and performing for decades in many different forms and guises. Joining them on stage is the formidable Bass player Christopher Santos. The trio's individual musical experiences and stories of life on the road seem endless. Now, after being friends and admiring each other's work for years, it is with great pleasure they join forces to present The Sounds of Simon & Garfunkel.

SCENES FROM THE CLIMATE ERA
Saturday 14 June, 7.30pm & Monday 18 June, 11am

The future is closer than you think - and it's full of surprises. Scenes from the Climate Era isn't your typical climate story - it's 80 unforgettable minutes, 50 punchy scenes and 5 powerhouse performers taking you on a wild ride from dinner tables to protests, Berlin nightclubs to backyard barbecues. Brought to life by Belvoir St Theatre and playwright David Finnigan, this bold, brilliant show is smart, sharp and surprisingly hopeful - plus, don't miss the special post-show Q&A after Monday's performance.
